

Trade82 Terms of Service

Chapter 1. General Provisions

Article 1. Purpose

These Terms of Service govern the rights, obligations, responsibilities, and other matters between Trade82 LLC or its operating entity (“Company,” “Trade82,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) and users who access or use the Trade82 website, marketplace, messaging tools, company profiles, product listings, inquiry tools, deal-status features, review features, document upload functions, and other related services collectively referred to as the “Service.”

Trade82 is a B2B marketplace platform designed to connect Korean sellers with American buyers.

Article 2. Definitions

For purposes of these Terms, the following terms have the meanings set forth below.

1. “User” means any individual or business entity that accesses or uses the Service.
2. “Member” means a User who creates an account and agrees to these Terms.
3. “Seller” means a Korean business, supplier, manufacturer, distributor, brand owner, exporter, or other business user that lists company information, products, or supply-related information on the Service.
4. “Buyer” means a U.S.-based business, importer, distributor, retailer, online seller, brand, or other business user that searches for Korean products, suppliers, or business opportunities through the Service.
5. “Company Profile” means business information submitted by a Member, including company name, logo, location, description, contact person, categories, products, buyer requirements, or other business-related information.
6. “Product Listing” means product-related information submitted by a Seller, including product name, category, image, description, minimum order quantity, lead time, export information, pricing range, or other product details.
7. “Inquiry” means a message, request, or business communication sent through the Service between a Buyer and a Seller.
8. “Deal” means a business transaction, supply arrangement, purchase arrangement, or other commercial relationship discussed or agreed upon between a Buyer and a Seller.
9. “Completed Deal Review” means a review submitted based on a Deal or inquiry relationship that the relevant parties have marked as completed through the Service.
10. “Submitted Documents” means business documents, company documents, contract-related files, or other materials uploaded by a Member for profile, operational, administrative, or deal-related purposes.

Article 3. Posting and Amendment of Terms

1. Trade82 may post these Terms within the Service or through a link made available to Members.
2. Trade82 may amend these Terms when necessary due to operational needs, legal changes, security requirements, service changes, or other reasonable grounds.
3. If these Terms are amended, Trade82 will notify Members of the effective date and material changes through the Service, email, notice page, or other reasonable method.

4. If a Member does not agree to the amended Terms, the Member may stop using the Service or request account termination. Continued use of the Service after the effective date of the amended Terms may be deemed acceptance of the amended Terms.

Chapter 2. Membership and Accounts

Article 4. Account Registration

1. A person or business seeking to use the Service may apply for membership by creating an account and providing the information requested by Trade82.
2. Trade82 may refuse, suspend, or limit account registration if:
 3. false or misleading information is provided;
 4. another person's or company's information is used without authorization;
 5. the applicant may interfere with the operation or security of the Service;
 6. the applicant has been involved in fraud, illegal trade, sanctions-related activity, or other inappropriate business conduct;
7. Trade82 reasonably determines that providing the Service to the applicant is inappropriate.
8. Members are responsible for keeping their account information accurate and up to date.

Article 5. Account Security

1. Members are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality and security of their login credentials, authentication methods, and account access.
2. Members are responsible for activity that occurs through their account due to their intentional conduct, negligence, or failure to secure their account.
3. Members must notify Trade82 promptly if they suspect unauthorized access or a security incident involving their account.

Article 6. Account Termination

1. Members may request account termination through the method provided by Trade82.
 2. Trade82 may delay account termination if:
 3. there are pending inquiries, deals, disputes, investigations, or administrative matters;
 4. retention is necessary for legal compliance, security, dispute resolution, backup, or internal recordkeeping;
 5. Trade82 needs to verify that the termination request was made by the account holder.
 6. Certain information may be retained after account termination as required or permitted by applicable law, privacy policy, security policy, backup policy, or dispute-resolution needs.

Chapter 3. Service Description

Article 7. Services Provided

Trade82 may provide the following services:

1. Korean Seller company profile registration and display;
2. American Buyer company profile registration and display;
3. Seller product listing and management tools;
4. Buyer sourcing profile, interested categories, and buying requirements;

5. company follow, product save, inquiry, and messaging tools;
6. deal-status features, including deal in progress, completion request, and completed deal status;
7. completed-deal review features;
8. private upload and access control for submitted company documents and contract-related files;
9. platform notices, admin messages, and customer support tools;
10. other B2B marketplace, sourcing, communication, or operational features provided by Trade82.

Article 8. Modification or Suspension of Service

1. Trade82 may modify, limit, suspend, or discontinue all or part of the Service for operational, technical, legal, security, or business reasons.
 2. Trade82 will make reasonable efforts to notify Members in advance of material service changes or interruptions. However, in urgent circumstances, such as security incidents, system failures, or emergency maintenance, Trade82 may provide notice after the fact.
 3. Unless required by law or separately agreed, Trade82 is not obligated to compensate Members for changes, interruptions, or discontinuation of free Service features.

Chapter 4. Seller and Buyer Obligations

Article 9. Seller Obligations

1. Sellers must provide accurate and lawful company information, product information, pricing ranges, lead times, minimum order quantities, export-related information, submitted documents, product descriptions, and other business information.
2. Sellers are responsible for product quality, labeling, packaging, exportability, intellectual property rights, origin claims, required permits, testing, customs requirements, product liability, and compliance with applicable laws.
3. Sellers must not provide false, misleading, deceptive, or incomplete information to Buyers.
4. Sellers are responsible for reviewing and complying with all contracts, taxes, export controls, logistics, insurance, customs, product liability, and other legal or commercial obligations related to their transactions.

Article 10. Buyer Obligations

1. Buyers must provide accurate and lawful company information, sourcing requirements, interested categories, expected order size, import experience, sales channels, payment preferences, and other business information.
2. Buyers are responsible for reviewing product information, supply terms, importability, customs requirements, payment terms, product suitability, legal compliance, and transaction risks before entering into any transaction with a Seller.
3. Buyers must not provide false order intent, false company information, misleading sourcing information, or deceptive transaction signals.
4. Buyers are responsible for reviewing and complying with all contracts, taxes, import rules, distribution rules, labeling rules, insurance, payment obligations, and other legal or commercial obligations related to their transactions.

Article 11. Prohibited Conduct

Members must not engage in any of the following conduct:

1. providing false, misleading, or deceptive company information, product information, buying information, messages, or reviews;
2. using another person's or company's account, name, trademark, logo, content, or personal information without authorization;
3. listing, promoting, sourcing, or attempting to trade illegal goods, sanctioned goods, counterfeit goods, stolen goods, hazardous goods, or goods restricted by applicable law;
4. engaging in spam, phishing, fraud, fake orders, fake quotations, fake reviews, abusive messaging, or misuse of the Service;
5. interfering with the security, servers, databases, APIs, or normal operation of the Service;
6. collecting, scraping, copying, storing, analyzing, or redistributing Service data through automated tools without Trade82's prior written consent;
7. infringing the reputation, rights, trade secrets, personal information, or intellectual property rights of Trade82 or another Member;
8. violating these Terms, applicable policies, applicable law, or public order.

Article 12. Service Restrictions

1. If a Member violates these Terms or acts in a manner that Trade82 determines to be inappropriate for the Service, Trade82 may issue a warning, hide content, make a company profile private, deactivate a product listing, restrict messaging, suspend an account, or terminate the Member's access to the Service.
 2. Trade82 will make reasonable efforts to provide notice before taking action. However, Trade82 may act without prior notice if urgent action is needed for security, legal compliance, fraud prevention, protection of other Members, or service integrity.
 3. A Member may submit an objection or request review through Trade82's customer support process.

Chapter 5. Inquiries and Deals

Article 13. Marketplace Role

1. Trade82 provides an online B2B marketplace where Korean Sellers and American Buyers can discover each other and communicate.
2. Trade82 is not a party to transactions between Sellers and Buyers unless expressly stated otherwise.
3. Trade82 does not represent or act as an agent for any Seller or Buyer.
4. Transaction terms between Sellers and Buyers are determined by the relevant parties.
5. Unless expressly stated otherwise, Trade82 does not guarantee pricing, lead time, product quality, payment, delivery, customs clearance, import approval, contract performance, or transaction completion.

Article 14. Inquiries and Messages

1. Members may use the inquiry and messaging tools to discuss product availability, transaction possibilities, order size, pricing, lead time, required documents, payment terms, shipping terms, and other business matters.

2. Members must not use messages to send false information, illegal content, spam, threats, discriminatory content, obscene material, malware, or other inappropriate content.
3. Trade82 may access, review, retain, or use inquiry and message records to the extent necessary for service operation, security, dispute handling, abuse prevention, compliance, or customer support.

Article 15. Deal Status and Completion

1. Members may use Service features to mark an inquiry or Deal as “Deal in progress,” “Completion requested,” or “Completed deal.”
2. Deal-status features are provided for recordkeeping and workflow purposes only.
3. A “Completed deal” status does not mean that Trade82 verifies, certifies, guarantees, or confirms legal performance, payment, delivery, customs clearance, or contract completion.
4. The rights and obligations arising from a transaction are determined by the actual agreement between the Seller and Buyer and applicable law.

Article 16. Payment and Settlement

1. Unless Trade82 separately provides a payment, escrow, or settlement function, payment and settlement between Sellers and Buyers are handled directly by the transaction parties at their own responsibility.
2. Members must clearly review payment method, refund conditions, shipping terms, dispute-resolution methods, and contract terms before entering into a transaction.
3. Unless expressly stated otherwise, Trade82 does not provide payment protection, debt payment guarantee, escrow, settlement hold, refund processing, or payment recovery.

Chapter 6. Submitted Documents and Private Files

Article 17. Upload of Submitted Documents

1. Members may upload Submitted Documents for company profiles, deal discussions, operational review, administrative purposes, or dispute handling.
2. Members are responsible for ensuring that Submitted Documents are accurate, lawful, and do not infringe the rights of any third party.
3. Members must not upload password-protected files that cannot be reviewed, files containing malware, forged documents, false documents, or unlawfully obtained documents.

Article 18. Management of Private Files

1. Trade82 may store business-related Submitted Documents and contract-related files separately from public files and manage them as private files.
2. Private files may be made available only to administrators, relevant transaction parties, or other persons authorized by Trade82.
3. Trade82 may limit access to private files or provide temporary access links with short expiration periods for security purposes.
4. Members must not share, copy, distribute, or provide unauthorized access to private files or private file links.

Chapter 7. Reviews

Article 19. Completed-Deal Reviews

1. Trade82 may provide a feature that allows Members to submit reviews based on completed Deals or inquiry relationships that satisfy Trade82's review criteria.
 2. Members must write reviews based on their actual experience.
 3. Members must not submit fake reviews, paid reviews without disclosure, malicious reviews, reviews disclosing personal information, reviews disclosing trade secrets, or reviews that violate applicable law.
 4. Trade82 may hide, restrict, remove, or request modification of reviews that may violate these Terms, applicable policies, third-party rights, or applicable law.
 5. Reviews reflect the subjective experience of the relevant Member and do not mean that Trade82 guarantees any Member, company, product, or transaction result.

Chapter 8. Privacy and Data

Article 20. Privacy

1. Trade82 processes personal information and business information to the extent necessary to provide and operate the Service.
2. Trade82 may maintain a separate Privacy Policy that describes how personal information is collected, used, stored, disclosed, and deleted.
3. Details regarding personal information processing are governed by the Privacy Policy.

Article 21. Record Retention

1. Trade82 may retain service usage records, inquiry records, deal status, reviews, documents, and related information to the extent necessary for service operation, security, dispute handling, legal compliance, accounting, internal audit, backup, or service improvement.
 2. Retention periods and processing methods are governed by applicable law, the Privacy Policy, and Trade82's internal policies.

Chapter 9. Intellectual Property and Content

Article 22. Trade82 Rights

The Service, Trade82 name, logos, designs, software, databases, page layouts, text, features, and content provided by Trade82 are owned by Trade82 or its licensors and are protected by applicable intellectual property laws.

Article 23. Member Content

1. Members are responsible for company information, product information, images, descriptions, reviews, messages, documents, and other content they submit to the Service.
2. Members grant Trade82 a non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free license to store, reproduce, display, transmit, edit, translate, format, and otherwise use Member Content to the extent necessary to provide, operate, display, promote, secure, and improve the Service.

3. Members represent that their content does not infringe any third party's copyright, trademark, publicity rights, trade secrets, personal information, or other rights.

Article 24. Data Collection Restrictions

Without Trade82's prior written consent, Members must not use automated tools, scrapers, crawlers, bots, scripts, or similar methods to collect, store, copy, analyze, redistribute, index, or create derivative works from Service data, company information, product information, reviews, messages, or Member information.

Members must not use Service data for artificial intelligence training, machine learning model development, data mining, or commercial database construction without Trade82's prior written consent.

Chapter 10. Disclaimers and Limitation of Liability

Article 25. Disclaimer of Warranties

1. Trade82 does not warrant that the Service will be uninterrupted, error-free, secure, or always available.
2. Trade82 does not warrant the accuracy, completeness, legality, reliability, timeliness, or suitability of company information, product information, sourcing requirements, Submitted Documents, messages, reviews, or other content submitted by Members.
3. Unless expressly stated otherwise, Trade82 does not guarantee a Seller's or Buyer's creditworthiness, financial condition, transaction intent, product quality, export/import possibility, customs clearance, payment performance, contract performance, or transaction completion.

Article 26. Limitation of Liability

1. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, Trade82 is not liable for transactions, inquiries, contracts, payments, shipping, customs clearance, product quality, reviews, disputes, damages, or losses between Members unless caused by Trade82's intentional misconduct or gross negligence.
 2. Trade82 is not obligated to intervene in disputes between Members. However, Trade82 may take actions such as reviewing records, restricting accounts, hiding content, or taking other measures to protect the Service and its Members.
 3. Members are responsible for conducting their own due diligence, contract review, legal review, payment-safety review, and professional consultation before entering into any transaction.

Chapter 11. Notices and Support

Article 27. Notices

1. Trade82 may notify Members through in-service notices, platform messages, email, website notices, or other reasonable methods.
2. General notices to all Members may be posted on the website or within the Service.

Article 28. Customer Support

Members may contact Trade82 regarding the Service through the customer support channel provided by Trade82.

Customer support email: support@trade82.com

Chapter 12. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

Article 29. Governing Law

These Terms and matters relating to the Service may be governed by the laws applicable to Trade82's place of formation, place of operation, the location of the Members, the nature of the transaction, and other relevant circumstances. Trade82 may separately define governing law and jurisdiction after legal review.

Article 30. Dispute Resolution

1. If a dispute arises between Trade82 and a Member, the parties will first attempt to resolve the dispute through good-faith discussions.
 2. If the dispute cannot be resolved through discussions, it will be resolved in the court or forum determined by Trade82's applicable legal terms and relevant law.
 3. Disputes between Sellers and Buyers must generally be resolved between the relevant transaction parties.

Supplementary Provision

These Terms are effective as of 2026 June 27.
